Florence Walton showed new ball-room dances and wore rich gowns and jewels. She was assisted in her efforts by Leon Leitrim, Maximilian Dolin and Milan Smolen. Vincent Lopez and his Pennsylvania Orchestra were heard. In one scene the men played in the dark, with the instruments glowing with radium paint.

Jack Donohue, comedy dancer, was amusing. Others who were seen were Mae and Rose Wilton, Joseph K. Watson, Shaw and Lee, the Andrieff Trio and "Dreams."

Take Possession of Station When Free State Troops Close In on District

Communication with Ireland, France, Germany and northern Europe over the lines of the Commercial Cable Company has been cut off, according to an announcement made by officials of the cable company yesterday morning. The closing of the lines, the officials said, was a result of the Irish republican army's action in closing its station at Waterville, County Kerry. This suspension went into effect at 8 oclock vesterday morning. The part of Ireland where the station is located is in control of the republican army, the officials of the cable company said, and when the Free Staters began closing in on this area communications were halted.

Baby Born in Police Station at Elmhurst

A baby was born in the 112th Precinct police station in Elmhurst, yesterday to Mrs. E. Filler, twenty-nine years old, of Laconia Street and Queens Boulevard. While on her way to visit her sister in Brooklyn, Mrs. Filler became ill and was helped by a passerby into the station house where a cot was rigged up.

Dr. Reisman, of St. John's Hospital, arrived, but not until after the child had been born. The child weighed nine pounds.
